The first one - fourth of my important life is passing without knowing what life is all about

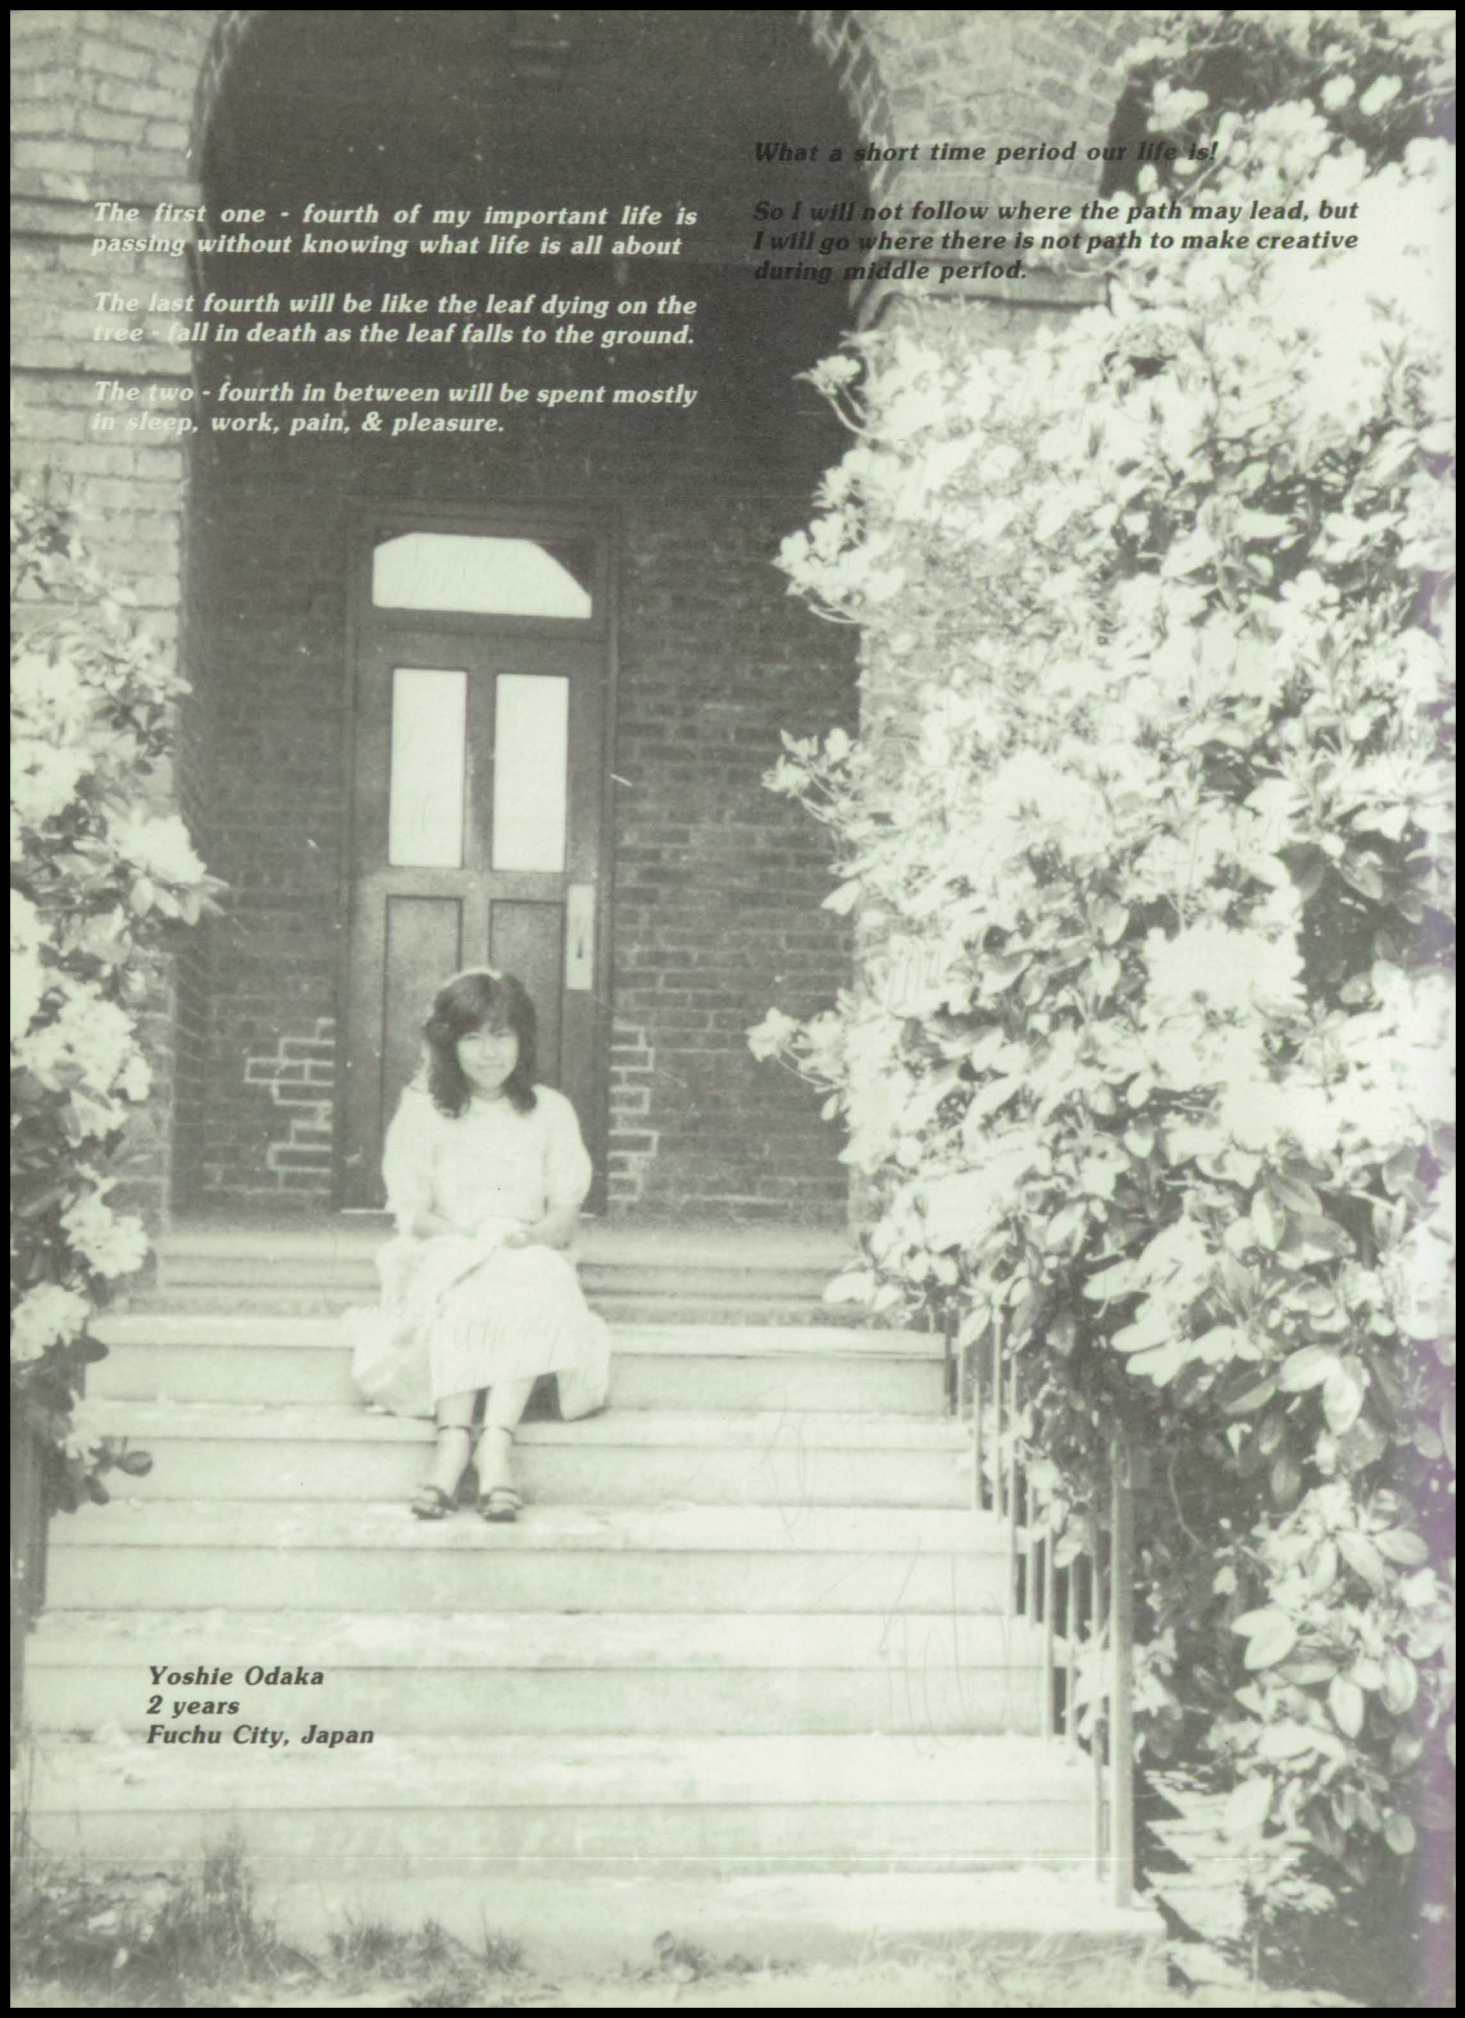

The last fourth will be like the leaf dying on the tree - fall in death as the leaf falls to the ground.

The two - fourth in between will be spent mostly in sleep, work, pain, & pleasure.

What a short time period our life is!

So I will not follow where the path may lead, but I will go where there is not path to make creative during middle period.

Thanx, Mom and Dad

So Mr. Mitchell,
This is the end of a terrific high school career! How could I possibly ever forget "Lady Di", "Current World Affairs" and "milk lunch innuendoes"? Don't answer that!

Good luck always - Keep playing the drums and listening to KISW - You were the one really same teacher at this place and I am not going to write something trite and cute like "I really enjoyed your class" but something I really mean like - maybe we'll meet again.

Blah - this is utterly grotesque!

On the top of a rolling hill
Overlooking the bay
I have spent many a contemplative hour Thinking of people and life as it is I never get tired
My mind strays away
Life is benevolent
And gratuitous to me
The wind whistles and calls to me
Telling me stories of old
And blowing my troubles away
Oh, thank-you, dear wind, you patient soul
For caressing my thoughts and taking them in The trees about me
Have held me high
In their foliage I see the world
From a different perspective
Look at me, dear tree
For you have taught me well
You are a part of the earth
But you sway high in the sky
Remember me, tree; hold me in your heart Caress me with your rings of age, and Tell the aged people to be that life was good
For me on the hill
This solid ground will never be found
In my life to be
Please guide my path, dear old earth
Trust you to see it through, for you have Given me
Flowers and life
And the good in heart
The love I have now
You provided the simplest things
That tell me you are there
You paint pictures I must read
And never tell their truths
Please speak to me and tell me I am a part
Dear road - It is time
I must leave this place of beauty and thought
I must find another it's equal
Please show me the way
I must go right and left and in between
But always find my place With enjoyment of life and youth and Nature all wrapped up in one
